

HECTOR SALVADOR ACUILAR MENDEZ

FINCA EL ROBLE, LA PALMA, CHALATENANGO, EL SALVADOR

Don Héctor has dedicated 45 years to coffee, beginning at the age of 24 and building a life around it alongside his family. Four years ago, he shifted his focus to specialty coffee, motivated by the desire to improve quality and secure better opportunities. Over time, his passion has grown, especially after discovering varieties like Pacas, which inspired him to keep evolving and adapting his work despite challenges such as limited access and coffee rust.

Today, Don Héctor continues to manage every aspect of his farm with his wife and son, working with care and consistency at each stage. Guided by experience and perseverance, he remains committed to producing better coffee and sustaining the livelihood that has supported his family for decades.
